People often look at the flowers and vegetables in our garden. Then they ask my parents, "Why are your flowers and vegetables so beautiful?" My parents do not know what to say. They know I often walk out into the garden late at night, but they do not know what I do out there. They sometimes watch me through the window, but they never ask questions.

THE COIN

Tim was not a coward, but he was afraid of dogs. One day on his way to school Tom saw a dog on his side of the street. He quickly went into a shop because he was afraid of the dog. The shopkeeper gave him a coin with a tiger on it. He said, "The coin will help you." Tom thanked and went out onto the street again. He looked at the dog, but he didn't run away. He put his hand in his pocket. He could feel the coin with his fingers. For the first time he wasn't afraid of the dog. The next day Tom met the dog again and said hello to him.
